

Gita Blakeney-Saltus
Regional Vice President, Caron Bermuda

Mrs. Blakeney-Saltus joined Caron Bermuda as the Regional Vice President in December of 2008. In her role, she builds on existing programs and offerings at the nonprofit addiction treatment facility through advocacy, development and community relations.

She worked with The Council Partners Charitable Trust (Bermuda), a private funding partner for substance abuse and prevention and treatment agencies, and was a former board member of Caron Bermuda. Most recently she held the position of Development Director at the Bermuda National Gallery, (Bermuda), where she successfully managed and implemented their annual membership and corporate giving campaigns. As a board member of Raleigh Bermuda, the African Diaspora Heritage Trail Foundation (ADHT), and a member of the Allocations Committee at The Argo Group.

With a strong background in business development, administration and non-profit management, Mrs. Blakeney-Saltus brings a sensibility of both the challenges intrinsic in development and the opportunities to transform lives. She is committed to the spirit of philanthropy, being of service to her community and engaging with entities that provide meaningful contribution to the overall betterment of the people in her island home.

In 2007, she was honored by the Bermuda Chamber of Commerce as one of the 100 Women "Who Rock the Rock" for contributions made in philanthropy and entertainment in Bermuda. She also serves on the Boards for the Raleigh Bermuda and African Diaspora Heritage Trail Foundation (ADHT), and is a member of the Allocations Committee of The Argo Group.

She studied at University of Western Ontario, Canada and completed her Cours de Langue et Civilisation Française Certificate de Langue Française Supérieur from the Sorbonne University in Paris, France.
