

Jennifer Vargenko-Burgess
Director of Operations, Caron Bermuda

Jennifer Vargenko-Burgess is a Bermuda point of contact for clients entering the Caron treatment system as well as for clients re-entering the country into the Bermuda Continuing Care program. She is responsible for overseeing the alignment of Caron Bermuda with the policies and procedures of Caron Treatment Centers, as well as with the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF) accreditation standards.

Additionally, Jennifer acts as a case manager for both individuals and family members in connecting with both local and overseas recovery options.

Prior to her current position at Caron Bermuda, Vargenko-Burgess made several trips overseas, totaling four months, to intern at Caron's residential and outpatient facilities in Pennsylvania. During this time, she observed a variety of activities such as group and family therapy sessions and intensive outpatient groups. She also conducted random drug tests and gained experience in conducting patient interviews and developing treatment plans.

She also spent five months interning at The Family Centre where she participated in programs aimed at increasing knowledge of parenting skills and improving the quality of the parent/child relationship. For the past eight months, she worked part-time facilitating a weekly continuing care group at Caron Bermuda. Jennifer completed a Master's Degree in Counseling Psychology as of December 2007.

Jennifer, who is also a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), previously spent 13 years with the public accounting firm KPMG in Pittsburgh and Bermuda where she was responsible for the U.S. tax compliance and consulting needs of a portfolio of clients and for providing U.S. tax assistance to the audit team. She also spent five months working as a Senior Analyst at the Bermuda Monetary Authority where she was responsible for supervising, regulating and overseeing entities registered as insurers in Bermuda.

Jennifer is a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Bermuda and is a volunteer for the Bermuda Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

